ENHANCING WRITING provides excellent resources and instruction to support the development of writing. Intervention resources engage students in learning the names and sounds of letters and then practice in forming those letters efficiently to support fluency in writing. This program is designed to lay the foundation for effective writing instruction in the K-1 classroom and answers key questions, such as:

- What is modeled writing?
- How do I scaffold early writing development?
- How do I help students who are struggling with writing fluency?

WRITING PROCESS MODEL

Lessons follow the 6-step writing process model. This model lays a strong foundation for all future writing enabling students to create logical and well written pieces.

- Modeled Writing
- Pre-Writing
- Developing a Draft
- Revising
- Editing
- Publishing

REAGAN’S JOURNAL

The book, Reagan’s Journal, provides students with engaging personal narratives that serve as examples of journal writing. The discussion from each journal entry gives students a number of prompts to involve them in the pre-writing conversation of the writing process. Teachers are guided on ways to support students’ independent writing, revision, editing and publishing.

STRENGTHEN WRITING AND FOUNDATIONAL SKILLS OF YOUNG WRITERS THROUGH MEANINGFUL INSTRUCTION.

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT
The Family Involvement Package gets parents involved with their children in writing personal narratives. Each student has the chance to take Fanny Frog home and write about the adventures he or she has with Fanny in the class journal. Studies have shown that parent involvement in early literacy is a key factor in a child's success.

FROG STREET'S ENHANCING WRITING provides all of the tools to springboard effective writing in the K-1 child. An example of this is the My Smart Start Drawing and Story Book which is used in the Developing a Draft stage. In this step, students write a draft in their personal journals based on the Pre-Writing discussions and word generation activities. This kit comes with 2/4 My Smart Start™ writing journals so each student has a personal journal to record their writing pieces.
